

DASHA SCHOOL
SCHOOL NEWS - FEBRUARY 2013

IN THE KITCHEN

Teacher Pauline Nyoni and her Level 1 group started the year with a great baking lesson. Breaking eggs, beating and mixing, spooning into pans and then popping it into the oven, and, wow, out came the great muffins. The staff and the Level 1 Group all enjoyed the lovely hot muffins at teatime.

The end result - great muffins!

Teacher Pauline, Lifa Nkuna and Mbali Nkosi

Teacher Pauline and Petrus Lambert popping it in the oven.

ATHLETICS MORNING AT KAMAGUGU INCLUSIVE SCHOOL

On Wednesday 27th February a group of our learners set off for Kamagugu and a morning of shotput, sprints, long jump and "javelin". It was a great morning and all had so much fun. Some of our stars in action.

Zane Reekers

Zano Mlimi

Mbali Nkosi

Nathan Landers

VALENTINE'S DISCO BALL

On Saturday 23rd February our annual Valentine's Dance was held for our teens and adults. Hearts, balloons and candles decorated the hall, While good food, lots of coldrink and good music kept all going for the evening. All had a wonderful time.

Jacques Bailey & Martie Kapp

Stefan Grobler, Jacques Bailey and David Tanner

Sizwe Matsane and Peter du Preez

Dian Erasmus, Stefan Grobler
Cristell Kriel, David Tanner

Janli Streuderst and David Tanner